Consequences

The requirements of this Code are non-negotiable and any behavior in violation of our code will result in the consequences deemed appropriate by Alteryx in its sole discretion. We reserve the right to take any or all of the following actions with respect to any event attendee who fails to comply with this Code: require the attendee to leave the event; deny access to the event or any portion of the event and any future Alteryx hosted or sponsored events; and to involve law enforcement, as necessary. If Alteryx denies entry or requires you to leave an event, you will not be eligible for a refund of any fees paid to us related to the event.

Reporting

If you experience or witness a safety emergency, please contact your local authorities. In North America, dial 911 immediately.

If you have a complaint or concern about harassment, discrimination, bullying, hate speech or any other conduct that violates this Code, we encourage you to tell an event staff member immediately. If you witness someone else experiencing this conduct, please report that too. You may request that your report remain completely confidential.

After event hours, if you see something suspicious or would like to report a safety or security issue, remember to contact your local authorities.
